

MONTRÉAL BREAK

CODE OF CONDUCT

Every traveller, along with a legal parent or guardian, must print, review, and sign this document prior to their Breakaway Tours trip. Travellers must carry the completed form with them to submit during their Welcome Orientation/or Check-in.

TRAVEL WITH FRIENDS

Get closer to your crew, and meet a ton of awesome people from around the country. Good vibes only!

CELEBRATE RESPONSIBLY

We get it. No parents, woohoo! But make sure to be safe and take responsibility for your own actions.

YOUR ADVENTURE

This is your trip. Explore your surroundings. Try something new. Embrace the incredible culture. These are the memories you'll remember forever.

RESPECT

It goes both ways. Treat all Montréal Break Leaders, other guests, locals, and anyone you meet on your trip with respect.

HOW TO STAY SAFE

Our #1 priority is safety. Please be aware of our guidelines that are in place to keep you and your crew safe. Some are actual laws, but most are just common sense.

- Fighting and violence is not tolerated. Anyone involved in a fight or altercation may be immediately removed from the trip at own cost.
- Possession of illegal drugs is prohibited. Authorities may be contacted and will result in immediate removal from program at own cost.
- Responsible consumption of alcohol is allowed only for individuals 18 years and over.
- There is a strict no alcohol policy in all common areas of the hotel and on-board any bus.
- Only Montréal Break travelers who are registered at your hotel are allowed in your room.
- Travellers will be required to wear their Montreal Break wristband at all times during the trip.
- No person shall impede the enjoyment or safety of others. Intimidation, including verbal, physical, or sexual harassment of any kind will not be tolerated.
- We believe in yes means yes, and only yes means yes. No person shall engage in nonc-onsensual sexual activity. Any form of sexual violence will not be tolerated.
- Never post/publish material that is obscene, racist, sexist, pornographic, sexually exploitative, discriminatory, threatening, harassing, defamatory, personally offensive, or illegal.
- Always honor the privacy of individuals. Do not share someone else's personal details, information, or image without their direct and explicit consent
- Bags and travellers will be searched by security personnel. Any illegal substances will be confiscated and discarded. Local authorities may be contacted.
- Respect all bus, hotel, excursion, venue, and Montréal Break property.
- Quiet hours between 10pm and 7am must be observed in all public areas of the hotel.
- Zero noise starts at 1am — All travellers must be in a room at this time.
- Smoking is only permitted in designated areas. No smoking in rooms or buses.

If the Montréal Break Code of Conduct is broken, the traveller may receive a warning with conditions, a phone call home to parents, or could be dismissed from the program at parents/guardians expense.

Every traveller must sign the Montréal Break Code of Conduct, agreeing to the trip guidelines. The instructions given by the Destination Team are for the safety of the travellers and must be obeyed at all times. Neither Montréal Break nor its employees are responsible for travellers, or their actions, while travelling. Travellers should be aware that there may be different rules of law and/or living standards and conditions outside of their home province or state and Canada or the United States and should conduct themselves accordingly. Montréal Break shall not be responsible for any damage, loss, injury or inconvenience resulting from different rules of law and/or living standards or any such changes and variations.

I have read and agree to the Montréal Break Code of Conduct

Traveller Name (Please Print)

Traveller Signature

Date of Birth

Date

Note: You must also have a parent/guardian signature

I have read and agree to the Montréal Break Code of Conduct

Parent/Guardian Name (Please Print)

Parent/Guardian Signature

Date